Volunteer Agreement

This document outlines the responsibilities and expectations for volunteers with Westcoast Community Resources Society (WCRS). As an essential member of our team, your dedication and support are vital to enhancing our services and assisting our clients.

WCRS truly appreciates your commitment to contributing your time and talents to our mission of empowering and supporting all members of our West Coast communities.

Your part in the Team

The Westcoast Community Resources Society is a non-profit organization which believes that every person in the community should have access to resources to enhance, and improve their well-being.

As a volunteer with WCRS, the program coordinator will provide you with a clear overview of your specific tasks, ensuring you understand your role. Additionally, there are some important guidelines that all volunteers should keep in mind, regardless of their position.

Code of Conduct

The Volunteer will adhere to a basic code of conduct essential for creating a positive environment. This includes treating everyone with respect and kindness, maintaining a professional demeanor, and fostering teamwork. By embracing these principles, you help cultivate a supportive atmosphere that benefits everyone involved.

Attendance

The Volunteer commits to attending their agreed-upon shifts responsibly and will notify WCRS in advance if they are unable to fulfill a shift.

Confidentiality and Sensitivity

The Volunteer acknowledges the sensitive nature of the clients served by WCRS and agrees to:

- Maintain confidentiality regarding client information.
- Exercise discretion in discussions and interactions related to clients.
